OVERVIEW OF THE COLLEGE

Associate in Arts or Associate in Science Degree
City College of San Francisco, a two-year college, confers the degrees of Associate in Arts or Associate in Science on students who satisfy the course and grade requirements for graduation.

Extensive Choice of Disciplines and Courses
The College offers you an extensive choice of disciplines and courses. Additionally, you may complete the first two years of training for a profession, satisfy freshman and sophomore requirements for transfer to baccalaureate degree-granting institutions, prepare for employment at the end of two years or a shorter period of training, take evening, Saturday, and summer courses; remove educational deficiencies; or get other special preparation.

Instructional areas include the following:
Program in General Education. An extensive selection of courses in the humanities, the arts, the natural and social sciences, and other fields.
Transfer Program. Courses offered to satisfy lower-division requirements to enable students to transfer to baccalaureate degree-granting institutions as juniors.
Occupational Program. Training for employment in occupations normally requiring two years or less of specialized career preparation.
Diversity Studies. Courses directed specifically to the interest and educational objectives of major segments of the San Francisco community including courses in African American, Asian American, Latin American, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender, and Philippine Studies.
International Education. Courses taught in other countries through Study Abroad and courses taught locally for international students, including an intensive English Institute.
Distance Education Courses. Courses that are offered via online, hybrid and televised instruction.
Foundation Courses. Basic courses in business, English, guidance, and mathematics.
Noncredit Courses. Mostly open-entry/open-exit courses, many emphasizing vocational education, leading to employment or job upgrading but also including courses in English as a second language, elementary-level and secondary-level skills, workforce preparation, parent education, health and safety, home economics, citizenship for immigrants, and special courses for disabled persons and older adults.
Community Service Offerings. Workshops and other short-term offerings that serve community interests and for which fees are charged because no tax support is available.

Through its counseling programs, the College helps you choose an occupation; plan a program of study based on your interests, abilities, and needs; develop educational plans; provide various types of educational counseling, including academic, career, transfer, and personal; and assist you with personal problems or other matters affecting your studies or your college career.

Career Development Counseling Department
Formerly CDPC
As a CCSF student or alumni, you are entitled to all the career services provided by the Career Development Counseling Department. CDPC will assist you in making your career/job choices, setting your educational career goals, selecting your major, becoming job ready and seeking employment.

CDPC services include individual career counseling, online advising, workshops, career success courses (LRMN 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 68, and 160), job resource information and job placement referrals. The Career Center (under CDPC) also maintains a career resources library which features computerized, written, and audio-visual career and employment information to assist you in making informed career decisions, as well as planning your job search strategies. CDPC lists on campus jobs through www.ccsf.edu/jobs and off campus jobs through CCSF Career Network, www.ccsf.edu, and other links found on the CDPC website: www.ccsf.edu/CareerCenters. Job binders are also found at the Career Centers of the Ocean and Mission Campuses. The CDPC schedule of classes and workshops, as well as other events can also be found on our website www.ccsf.edu/CareerCenters. For more questions call 239-3117 or email careerchat@ccsf.edu.
