This course is an introduction to Microsoft Windows XP, the operating system software used by most PCs. Students will learn the fundamentals of using Microsoft Windows XP, and perform basic computer operations including creating documents, and managing files. Computer software applications introduced include Internet Explorer, Microsoft Word and Microsoft Excel.

Register with a Counselor or In Class