This course is a hands-on and project-oriented introduction to the Internet and Web concepts for business and office support. Students learn how to use the Internet via a browser for office, business and personal use, including searching the Web and E-mailing. Topics covered include basic Internet and Web terminology, Web browser features, search processes and tools, E-mailing, and identifying useful sites.