Honor with Books

Stein Glick Business Collection

The Downtown Campus Library at City College of San Francisco is establishing a business collection in honor of Steven Glick, Dean of the Downtown Campus and School of Business, Dean of Culinary Arts and Hospitality Studies and Dean of Contract Education. Steven Glick's innovative leadership over the last 16 years, his dedication to our students and the ideals of City College have been an inspiration to all who teach, learn and work with him.

In 1995, Steven Glick applied for and the State of California awarded a contract to the School of Business at CCSF to open the San Francisco Small Business Development Center (SF SBDC).

In the past ten years alone the SF SBDC has counseled nearly 5,000 entrepreneurs with over 40,000 hours of business advice and provided workshops to more than 16,000 attendees. In these ten years, SF SBDC clients have created or retained 3,000 jobs, increased sales by $64 million, received over 200 business loans for more than $22 million and produced $44 million in capital injections. Steven Glick, the founder and champion of this program has helped produce this economic impact so important to the Bay Area.

In recognition of his strong support of the library and his commitment to providing superior educational opportunities, the Steven Glick Business Collection will cover the disciplines of business, law, economics, computer information technology and related subject areas.

Tribute books in honor of Steven Glick may be purchased with contributions of $50 and above. Library staff will select a book in the subject area of your choice and a bookplate will be placed inside the front cover of each tribute book with Steven Glick’s name and your name. We will send a letter to the honoree notifying him of your gift and will also send an acknowledgment letter which may be used for tax-deduction purposes.
