
Paralegal/Legal Studies News

City College of San Francisco

www.ccsf.edu/legal

October 2009

IMPORTANT DATES

Monday, October 12, 2009 – In observance of Faculty Day, no classes will be held on this day.

Starting Friday, October 23, 2009 – Students may obtain their midterm grades for Fall Semester 2009 on www.ccsf.edu. If a student has a question regarding a grade, he or she should contact the instructor for that course

SAN FRANCISCO PARALEGAL ASSOCIATION

In addition to the education you are receiving in our Program, we encourage you to join a professional organization such as the San Francisco Paralegal Association (“SFPA”) to network with practicing paralegals and to learn of the current trends in the profession. To learn more about SFPA, please visit www.sfpa.com.

OUR WEB SITE

Complete and current information on the Paralegal/Legal Studies Program is found at www.ccsf.edu/legal. The Mission Statement page is self-explanatory. The Program Information page links you to information on the Program in the college catalog, Schedule of Classes, and the Vocational Education Department. The Current Trends page offers articles of interest on the profession. News and Links provide additional sites that you may visit to gather information on the paralegal profession. Now, you will be able to download your monthly issue of "Paralegal/Legal Studies News" under the Newsletters page. Services offer information on mentoring and internships within our Program. The Contact page tells you how to contact the Program Coordinator and Webmaster, Dora Dye, and also contains the date that the web site was last updated. The People page offers information on our distinguished Advisory Committee and on our faculty. The Jobs page contains current paralegal openings and a link to other related employment. This site was developed for you; please check it often for current information on the Program.

Good luck on your midterms!