Fall Semester
in Paris, France

with City College of San Francisco

Program dates: September 4 - December 8, 2006
Immerse yourself in experiential learning – Spend the Semester in Paris with ACCENT and City College of San Francisco. Explore Parisian cathedrals, monuments, churches, museums and galleries, as Paris becomes an extension of your classroom. You will attend French Grammar and Phonetics classes at the University of Paris - Sorbonne as well as a French Civilization, French Conversation and Art History classes with local faculty at the ACCENT Center. Participants on the Semester in Paris program live in double or triple occupancy rooms in a student residence or in student apartments or in a single room in a homestay (with supplement) and have the opportunity to attend cultural events and optional social activities organized by the ACCENT Paris Center staff. The ACCENT Paris Center also provides support and guidance to students studying abroad. Once you have completed and turned in the initial application form, you will receive more detailed application and enrollment forms as well as a student handbook. If you have questions about any aspect of this program, please feel free to contact us at ACCENT 800.869.9291 or Jill Heffron, City College of San Francisco Study Abroad Office at 415.239.3778.

Participant Services: The ACCENT Centers
ACCENT is an independent study abroad program provider with a multinational team of staff members who all have personal experiences in study abroad. With more than 20 years of experience coordinating high-quality overseas study programs, ACCENT works in partnership with U.S. colleges and universities to develop academically challenging and culturally enriching overseas study experiences in Paris, Florence, London, Madrid and Rome. Each city is home to a fully staffed ACCENT Center that serves as a home base for program participants. The ACCENT San Francisco Center coordinates program enrollment and pre-departure preparation for students helping to make their transition to living overseas as smooth as possible.

The ACCENT Paris Center is located in the historic Bastille district of central Paris, within easy métro/bus reach of the Sorbonne, the Latin Quarter and the city of lights’ incomparable museums and monuments. The ACCENT Center is open during the week for students to use the resource/lending library, computer lab, wireless connectivity, and study annex. The ACCENT staff in Paris provides a wide variety of on-site student services and is an invaluable resource for students who want to find out more about their host city.

Application and Enrollment
The Semester in Paris program is open to participants who are 18 or older at the time of application. Program space is limited. Students who meet the eligibility requirements should send in the attached application with the $250 non-refundable first payment as soon as possible. Upon receipt of your application and first payment, ACCENT and City College of San Francisco will send you additional application and enrollment forms. Applications must be received by May 25, 2006. Transferable Academic Credit
The Semester in Paris program is offered for transferable college credit through City College of San Francisco, which will provide a transcript upon request for the coursework completed overseas. City College of San Francisco is a regionally accredited two-year college. All coursework and credit awarded are lower-division, undergraduate. All courses except French Conversation and Phonetics transfer to the University of California system. Please verify the transferability of courses with your advisor or registrar before you apply.

Paris, France

September 4, 2006 - December 8, 2006
Academic Curriculum

Located in the heart of Paris’ Latin Quarter and throughout adjacent neighborhoods, the University of Paris – Sorbonne is one of the world’s oldest and most prestigious universities. Through the Sorbonne’s Cours de Civilisation Française, students will be immersed in the French language and culture while attending classes with students from all over the world. During the overseas orientation, students complete a placement exam to determine the class level appropriate to their language skills. Classes at the Sorbonne are taught entirely in French.

Other courses include French Conversation, French Civilization and Art History which are taught by local faculty at the ACCENT Center and/or during on-site visits. Classes range in size from 15-25 students. Students can expect to be in class approximately four to six hours per day, Monday through Friday.

Students will choose from the following courses:

- French 1A-1B/2A-2B/3A-3B/4A-4B: Cours Pratiques 3 – 6 semester units
- French 1/2/3: Cours Pratiques 5 semester units

French Grammar classes at the University of Paris – Sorbonne are taught at all levels, from beginning to intermediate/advanced. The Phonetics course is an integral part of the Cours Pratiques. Taught in French. CSU/UC

- French 23: Phonetics 2 semester units

French pronunciation, diction and intonation in theory and practice. Part of the Cours Pratiques at the University of Paris – Sorbonne. Taught in French. CSU

- French 10A/10B/10C/10D/11A/11B: French Conversation 3 semester units

This course is specially designed to enable participants to begin using French immediately in everyday situations and to develop practical vocabulary. Taught in French. Courses are taught at multiple levels from beginning through intermediate/advanced at the ACCENT Center. CSU

- French 41/42: French Civilization 3 semester units

A survey of French history from pre-Roman times to the present. Topics in architecture, art, literature and other components of French culture and civilization. Lectures are taught at the ACCENT Center and on-site at museums, châteaux, city districts and historical monuments. Taught in English. CSU/UC

- Art 102: Western Art History 3 semester units

A survey of Western art from the 4th to the 19th centuries A.D. The course will begin with the Roman era as an introduction, and continue into the Neo-Classical period. All art will be discussed from a critical and historical perspective, with regard to formal visual elements of style and the social context of the values and ideas that gave birth to Western art. Lectures are taught at the ACCENT Center and on-site at museums. Taught in English. CSU/UC

above classes are subject to change
