I. General Statements

A. The Board of Trustees embraces the concept of shared governance as a fundamental policy of the college, while retaining its own rights and responsibilities as the ultimate authority in all areas defined by State laws and regulations.

B. The Board of Trustees shall establish procedures to ensure faculty, staff, and students;

1. the opportunity to express their opinions and to ensure that these opinions shall be given every reasonable consideration; and,

2. the right to participate effectively in college governance.

C. Appropriate members of the college shall participate in planning for the future, and in developing policies, regulations, and recommendations under which the college is governed and administered.

D. Each constituency of the college which has the responsibility and expertise in a particular area shall participate in the formulation of policies and regulations related to that area. Such participation will bring together multiple segments of the college in instances where policies and regulations affect staff across schools and departments.

E. College standing and ad hoc committees shall be structured to include appropriate representation by faculty, administration, classified staff, and students, when matters being considered are within their purview.

F. The Board of Trustees delegates responsibility and authority to the Chancellor to establish a college shared governance system in consultation with and approval of appropriate college constituencies, subject to Board approval.
I. The Board of Trustees, and its official representative, the Chancellor, shall rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the Academic Senate in the following areas as defined by Title 5, Section 53200:

1. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites and placing courses within disciplines
2. Degree and certificate requirements
3. Grading policies
4. Educational program development
5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success
6. District and College governance structures, as related to faculty roles
7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes, including self-study and annual reports
8. Policies for faculty professional development activities
9. Processes for program review
10. Processes for institutional planning and budget development
11. Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon between the governing board and the academic senate

II. College Governance Structures

The college shall be governed by three governance systems:

1. Collegial governance system in which the college shall rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the Academic Senate and its representatives;

2. The college advisory governance system in which standing committees, ad hoc committees, and trade advisory/community advisory committees may provide advisory recommendations to the College advisory Council for review and action;

3. Budget and planning governance system, which is advisory directly to the Chancellor on all matters pertaining to institutional priorities, planning and Budget issues.
A Collegial Governance System

1. It is the responsibility and obligation of members of the faculty, administration and Board to participate in the collegial process. The collegial governance system comprises four institutional bodies. They are:

   a) Academic Policies
   b) Curriculum
   c) Student Preparation/Student Success
   d) Staff development (as it relates to faculty)

2. See Appendix A for a description of each standing committee. Subcommittees may be established to address specific sub areas within these four areas. These subcommittees may address policy and/or implementation issues.

3. Each committee shall elect its own chair.

4. Each committee and subcommittee shall have a chair authorized to be responsible for the operations of the committee and an appropriate administrator on the committee shall be designated to ensure that the agreed upon mandate of the committees/subcommittees is carried out according to the agreed upon timelines.

5. Policy recommendations from the committees go directly to the Academic Provost and the Academic Senate for review and then (in consultation with the Vice Chancellor for Administration and Finance, where appropriate) to the Chancellor who will make his/her policy recommendations to the Board subject to Section IV.H below.
6. Where special circumstances dictate or special issues arise in academic and professional matters as defined in Title 5 regulations, the Chancellor, in consultation with the Academic Senate, may establish an ad hoc committee to develop recommendations. The Academic Senate shall appoint faculty and the Chancellor shall appoint administrators to the ad hoc committee. The committee shall report to the appropriate collegial governance committee and the Academic Senate and then to the Chancellor.

B. College Advisory Governance System

1. The Chancellor shall establish a College Advisory Council, which will coordinate policy development and make recommendations in areas not under the leadership of the Academic Senate. The Council shall consist of the following representatives from each of the following constituencies:

   a) Faculty (three representatives chosen by the Academic Senate including one from AFT 2121, and one from Department Chairs Council)

   b) Classified staff (three representatives appointed by SEIU 790 including one from group not represented by SEIU);

   c) Administrators (three representatives appointed by the Chancellor)

   d) Students (two representatives appointed by the Associated Students Government for one year terms)

Appointments of faculty, classified staff and administrators shall be for two years.

2. The advisory governance system shall be comprised of three types of committees:

   a) Standing Advisory Committees

   Standing advisory committees report to the College Advisory Council (see Appendix B for list of standing committees).

   b) Ad Hoc Committees

   Where special circumstances dictate or special issues arise, the Chancellor may establish ad hoc committees to develop recommendations. Representatives from each constituency shall be appointed by the appropriate organizations.

   c) Trade advisor/Community Advisory Committees
Where appropriate, committees may be established to advise college programs. All recommendations are advisory to the administrator responsible for the program.

3. The College Advisory Council shall receive and review all recommendations from the college standing committees. The Council’s recommendations shall be forwarded to the Chancellor who shall make final recommendations to the Board of Trustees.

The Council chair shall be the Chancellor or his/her designee.

C. Budget and Planning Governance System

1. The purpose of the Planning and Budgeting Council is to serve as a standing committee within the CCSF Shared Governance System with the specific charge to provide guidance in the overall planning system for CCSF, participate in the development of plans (including the strategic plan and annual plans), review and recommend the annual budget (including unit plans and budgets), and participate in the semi-annual assessment of accomplishments and outcomes. The council makes planning and budget recommendations directly to the Chancellor, who makes decisions on final plans and budget to be recommended to the Board of Trustees for adoption. The council also may make recommendations on the overall policies and procedures for the development of plans and budgets at CCSF.

2. Committees may be established by the Council with appointments to be made by the chairperson. Members of committees may or may not be members of the standing Council. Descriptions of the committees, their function and their membership appear in the Appendix to the CCSF Shared Governance Policy.

3. The Chancellor will serve as chairperson of the Planning and Budgeting Council. In the absence of the Chancellor, a deputy chairperson may be named by the Chancellor to serve in this capacity.
III. The role of the Academic Senate Regarding Recommendations to the Board of Trustees

A. The Board of Trustees or the Chancellor, may receive policy recommendations from the faculty in respect to academic and professional matters in three modes:

1. From the Academic Senate directly, conditional upon the procedures set forth in Section IV. Subsection H.

2. From collegial governance committees which rely primarily upon the advice and leadership of the Academic Senate and its representatives; and

3. From college committees, which may take up issues, which overlap with the areas, listed in Title 5, Section 53200.

B. For recommendations directly from the Academic Senate or from collegial governance committees relying primarily upon the advice of the Academic Senate, the Board and the Chancellor, agree that the Board is relying primarily upon the advice and judgment of the Senate.

C. For recommendations from college committees not under the leadership of the Academic Senate on issues which may overlap with the areas listed in Title 5, Section 53200, the Board of Trustees or its designee, the Chancellor, shall make every effort to reach agreement with the Academic Senate.

IV. Authority, Responsibility and Process

A. Policy recommendations from collegial academic committees or ad hoc committees with collegial standing shall go to the Academic Provost and the Academic Senate, then to the Chancellor and then to the Chancellor and then the Board.

B. Policy recommendations from the Academic Senate shall go the Academic Provost, then to the Chancellor and then the Board subject to the conditions of Section H below.

C. Recommendations from the Budget and Planning Committee shall go to the Chancellor and then to the Board.
D. Recommendations from standing advisory committees shall go to the College Advisory Council, then to the Chancellor and the Board.

E. Recommendations from the ad hoc committees not pertaining to academic and professional matters shall go to College Advisory Council and then to the Chancellor or his/her designee, and then the Board.

F. Policy suggestions and proposals may originate from any individual, groups of individuals or organization in the college. The College advisory Council shall receive all policy proposals, which do not originate in a committee. The Council shall designate the appropriate committee to examine the proposal with a timeline for reporting its deliberations to either the Council or the Provost if appropriate.

G. The appointment of faculty members to serve on college committees, task forces or other bodies dealing with academic and professional matters, shall be made by the Academic Senate, after consultation with the Chancellor or his/her designee. The Academic Senate shall make every effort to rotate membership in committees in keeping with democratic and participatory principles.

H. The Academic Senate and the Chancellor are committed to finding appropriate remedies and resolutions to all academic and professional matters in which there may be a disagreement.

1. If the Academic Senate Executive Council or the Provost disagree with a policy recommendation from one of the collegial academic governance committees. The matter shall be referred back to the originating committee with written comments or recommendations so that issues raised by the Academic Senate Executive council or the Provost may be addressed. The academic Senate Executive Council and the Provost will then review the policy issue and/or the committee’s recommendations and report its decision to the Chancellor.

2. If the Chancellor disagrees with a policy recommendation from the Academic Senate Executive Council, the matter shall be referred back to the Academic Senate Executive Council, the matter shall be referred back to the Academic Senate Executive Council with written comments or recommendations so that issues raised by the Chancellor may be addressed. The Academic Senate Executive Council will the review the policy issues and report its decision to the Chancellor.

3. If no resolution or remedy id found, the Academic Senate shall present its position directly to the Board for review and action. If the Board rejects the Academic Senate recommendation, it shall do so with a written explanation to the academic Senate.
I. All committees shall have timely published agendas and printed, available, approved minutes.

J. Each constituent group – students, classified staff, administration and faculty – shall evaluate the effectiveness and operation of the entire governance system every two years beginning in 1995. A summary report and recommendation, based upon the reports/recommendations of each constituent group, shall be developed by the College Advisory Council and forwarded to the Chancellor who shall make a report to the Board of Trustees with recommendations for improvements and change (if needed) in the governance system.

K. The appendices to the Shared Governance System shall contain the name of each standing committee, function and purpose, membership composition, and reporting responsibility. The appendices shall be considered to be part of the college’s administrative regulations.

L. During November, 1994 this agreement shall be reviewed by each party and each such party shall use its best efforts to address any and all issues raised by the other party.
PURPOSE AND FUNCTION OF THE APPENDIX

The appendices shall describe the purpose and function of the college governance committees including membership composition and reporting responsibility.

Additions, deletions and modifications of committees as described in these appendices may take place without Board resolution.

Modifications of the collegial governance committees may take place by mutual agreement between the Academic Senate and the Chancellor.

Modifications of all other committees may take place by action of the Chancellor with concurrent agreement from the presidents of SEIU 790, Academic Senate and Associated Students.

Collective bargaining agreements as they affect governance committees may be modified through the collective bargaining process.
