TRANSFER INFORMATION

General Information
This section of the College catalog contains general information for students planning to transfer to any of the University of California campuses, the University of California, Berkeley, and to any of the campuses of the California State University.

Listed in this section of the catalog (in the order given below) are five categories of information: (1) Courses which satisfy the general education requirements for all campuses of the California State University; (2) Courses from City College of San Francisco acceptable at all campuses of the University of California for elective credit; (3) Courses from City College that satisfy the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC); (4) Courses from City College which have California Articulation Number System (CAN) numbers, and (5) Courses which satisfy the American Institutions requirement for the University of California, and breadth requirements for only the College of Letters and Science of the University of California, Berkeley (note that breadth requirements are different for individual colleges within the University).

Transfer Information
Courses numbered from 1 through 799 are university courses except for those listed as "Credit, non-degree applicable" and a few others. With these exceptions, courses numbered 1 through 799 are considered to be baccalaureate in nature and carry transfer credit. However, according to their transfer policies, some universities and four-year colleges may not grant transfer credit for every City College baccalaureate course.

Courses named with one of the letters from A through Z are foundational courses: for example, English K. Credit earned in these courses is not accepted for graduation from City College and is generally not transferable to a university or a four-year college.

Credit earned in courses numbered 800 through 899 is generally not transferable to a university or a four-year college. Such credit, however, is accepted for graduation from City College.

Courses numbered 0001 through 9999 (the zeroes are significant) are noncredit courses. No college credit is given for these.

The California State University grants transfer credit for all courses numbered 1 through 799, except for some non-degree applicable English and English as a Second Language courses. Those courses which are transferable to the State University are labeled with "CSU" following the description of the course content in its announcement.

A complete list of courses for which the University of California accepts credit is given in the Transfer section of this catalog. In addition, each course that is acceptable at all campuses of the University of California has "UC" following the description of the course content in its announcement.

Those courses for which a California Articulation Number System number has been established have "CAN:" following the description of the course content in their announcement. The subject area and the course CAN number follows the semicolon in the entry, for example, CAN: ENGR 4 is Engineering 4.

Students are advised to see their counselors or advisors for further information beyond that which is given on the following pages regarding transferring to a four-year college or university.

Articulation agreements which list detailed information concerning specific majors and which describe course transferability and applicability between City College of San Francisco and baccalaureate degree-granting institutions are available at WebAssist, www.assist.org, the counselors’ offices, the Transfer Center (Room 132, Science Hall) and in the College Library.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY (ALL CAMPUSES)

Admission Application Dates
To ensure consideration for admission to the campus of first choice, students are reminded to file a CSU application during the appropriate filing period shown below:

Term:
Applications First Accepted
Summer Quarter:
February 1 (preceding the summer term)
Fall Quarter:
November 1 (preceding the term)
Winter Quarter:
June 1 (preceding the term)
Spring Semester/Quarter:
August 1 (preceding the term)

Application for impacted programs must be filed during the first month of the filing period. Otherwise, each campus accepts applications until capacities are reached. If you are applying after the initial filing period, consult the campus admissions office for current information.

Application forms are available in the Counseling Department, Room 205, Conlan Hall, the Transfer Center, Science Hall, Room 132, from University Admissions Offices or online, www.csumentor.edu.

Admission with Freshman Standing
Freshman admission requirements apply to those applicants who, after graduation from high school, have not taken any courses at an accredited college or university. Freshman applicants who are graduates of California high schools or who, for tuition purposes, are legal residents of California must achieve a grade-point average in high school and a composite score on the American College Testing Program (ACT) or on the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT) of the College Entrance Examination Board which place them among the upper one-third of California high-school graduates. (See the application and information bulletin for the California State University for details on the method of determining eligibility.)
Admission as a Transfer Student

A student who was eligible to enter the California State University as a freshman may apply at any time for admission with advanced standing if a grade-point average of 2.00 or higher in all transferable college work attempted is achieved.

A student who was not eligible to enter the California State University as a freshman may satisfy CSU admission requirements as an upper division transfer student by:

1. Completing a minimum of 56 transferable semester units (CCSF courses numbered 1 through 799 except for some non-degree applicable English and English as a Second Language courses).
2. Maintaining a grade point average of 2.00 or higher in all transferable units attempted. Nonresidents must have a 2.4 grade point average.
3. Satisfying the lower division general education requirements while receiving no less than a C grade in each course. High school course deficiencies are disregarded for transfer students if 30 units of General Education including all of Area A and Area B4 of the California State University General Education requirements are completed.

Supplementary Admissions Requirements. Some majors receive more applications during the initial filing period than can be accommodated. These majors are called “Impacted Majors” and have higher admission standards.

Transfer of Credit to the California State University (All Campuses)

The campuses of the California State University accept credit from City College of San Francisco as follows:

1. They accept as elective credit toward graduation the units earned in all City College courses numbered 1 through 799, except for ESL 22, 32, 32A, 32B, 42, 44, 46, 48, and 56 and ENGL 90 and 92.
2. They do not accept credit earned in City College foundational courses. (These courses are named with only one letter—for example, English K. Other of these courses are numbered from 800 through 899—for example, Mathematics 840.)
3. They accept transfer credit as indicated above, but do not accept more than 70 semester units of community college credit to be used to satisfy the unit requirements for the baccalaureate degree.
4. They accept partial or full certification of completion of the Lower Division General Education requirements for graduation from the California State University for courses completed at City College.
5. They do not necessarily accept credit that City College has granted for work completed at other collegiate institutions or for CEEB AP examinations.
6. They grant six units of credit for one year or more of military service.

American Institutions and United States History Requirement

Candidates for a bachelor’s degree must satisfy the requirement in American Institutions and United States History by completing one course from each of the following two groups:

- Group 1. Asian American Studies 20; History 1, 12A, 12B, 17A, 17B, 41A, 41B
- Group 2. Political Science 1

General Education Requirements for the California State University (All Campuses)

Requirements for the baccalaureate degree at the California State University include the completion of a minimum of 48 semester units in general education within a prescribed pattern, including 9 semester units of upper-division work. A maximum of 39 semester units may be certified by City College as having met the CSU lower division General Education requirements.

The General Education requirements listed below apply to all students who entered City College in Fall 1981 or thereafter and who have maintained continuing student status.

All students transferring to CSU who have maintained continuing student status are responsible for the General Education requirements in effect at the time they began their continuing student status.

The 39 semester unit pattern is distributed among five broad areas as noted below. City College will certify completion of each area according to the unit limits shown.

Students are advised to consult an academic counselor for information regarding completion of the General Education pattern at City College.

AREA A: Communication in the English language and critical thinking
(9 certifiable units with at least one course from each of A1, A2, and A3)

A1 Oral Communication:
English as a Second Language 79; Speech 1A, 4, 11, 12.

A2 Written Communication:
Business 70; English 94, 96, 1A, 1B; English as a Second Language 82.

A3 Critical Thinking:
English 94, 1A, 1B, 40; Philosophy 2, 4, 40

AREA B: Physical and biological sciences (including laboratory experience), and quantitative reasoning
(9 certifiable units with at least one course from each of B1, B2, and B4. The laboratory course marked by *, will satisfy B3.)
B1 Physical Science:
Astronomy 1, 14, 16*, 17, 18
Chemistry 30, 31*, 40*, 101A*, 103A*, 106, 110, 110L*

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA (ALL CAMPUSES)

Admission Application Dates
To ensure consideration for admission to the campus of first choice, students are reminded to file a UC application during the appropriate Filing Period:

University of California, Berkeley
- Fall Semester: File November 1-30
- Application accepted for the fall only

All other University of California Campuses
- Fall Quarter: File November 1-30
- Winter Quarter: File July 1-31
- Spring Quarter: File October 1-31

For the fall term, most majors and programs are open to new students. There are fewer openings available in the winter and spring terms. Check with the specific campus Admissions Office if applying for other than the fall term.

Application forms are available in the Counseling Department, Room 205, Conlan Hall; at the Transfer Center, Room 132, Science Hall from University Admissions Offices or online, www.ucop.edu/pathways.

Admission with Freshman Standing
Freshman admission requirements apply to those applicants who, after graduation from high school, have not taken any courses at a collegiate institution (exclusive of courses taken at a summer session immediately following high school graduation). The following are the general requirements that California residents must satisfy for admission as freshmen. The courses that students offer to satisfy these requirements must be included on the certified list submitted to the Director of Admissions of the University by the high school principal if the school is located in California. The list must be certified by the principal to the effect that the courses included thereon meet the requirements for admission to the University, and must have been approved by the Director of Admissions of the University. If the high school is not located in California, the Office of Admissions of the University will determine if the courses are acceptable.

Subject Requirement. (A high school unit is equal to an academic year or two semesters of study. However, one semester of a five-unit course in foreign language at City College is equivalent to two high school units.) Students must take 15 units of high school courses to fulfill the Subject Requirement and at least seven of the 15 units must be taken in the last two years of high school.

a. History/Social Science: 2 years required
   - Must include one year of U.S. history or one-half year of U.S. history and one-half year of civics or American government; and one year of world history, cultures, and geography

b. English: 4 years required
   - Must be college preparatory English - composition and literature

c. Mathematics: 3 years required, 4 years recommended
   - Must be college preparatory mathematics which include the topics in elementary and advanced algebra and two and three dimensional geometry

d. Laboratory Science: 2 years required, 3 years recommended
   - Must provide basic knowledge in at least two of the fundamental disciplines of biology, chemistry, and physics

e. Languages other than English: 2 years required, 3 years recommended
   - Must be the same language other than English

f. College preparatory Elective Courses: 2 years required
   - Must be in addition to those required in “a-e” above, chosen from the following areas: visual and performing arts, history, social science, English, advanced mathematics, laboratory science, and languages other than English (The third year in the language is used for the "e" requirement or this may be two years of a different language.)

Scholarship Requirement. The Scholarship Requirement defines the grade point average (GPA) students must attain in the required "a-f" subjects to be eligible for admission to the University. If the student's GPA is 3.30 or higher, he or she has met the minimum requirement for admission. If the GPA is below 3.30 but above 2.81, the student has met the minimum requirement if he or she achieves the college entrance test score referred to in the Eligibility Index in the application. Only grades the student earns in "a-f" subjects in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades are used to calculate the GPA to determine minimum eligibility for admission. Courses taken in the ninth grade can be used to meet the Subject Requirement if the student earns a grade of C or better, but they will not be used to calculate the GPA.

Examination Requirement. All freshman applicants (and transfer applicants who have earned fewer than 12 semester units of college credit subsequent to high school graduation) must submit scores from the following examinations:

1. Scholastic Assessment Test I: Reasoning Test (SAT I) or American College Test. The verbal and mathematics scores on the SAT I must be from the same sitting. The ACT composite score must be submitted.
2. Three Scholastic Assessment Test II: Subject Tests, including Writing, Mathematics Level I or IIC, and one test in one of the following areas: English literature, language other than English, science, or social studies.

NOTE: Prior to March 1994 the SAT I was called SAT and the SAT II: Subject Tests were called Achievement Tests.

Admission by Examination Alone

The required total score on the SAT I or SAT to qualify as a freshman by examination alone is 1300 (if taken prior to April 1995) or 1400 (if taken in April 1995 or later). (The minimum ACT score is 31). The total score on the three SAT II: Subject Tests must be 1650 or higher, with a minimum score of 500 on each test (if taken before May 1995). If taken in May 1995 or later, the total must be at least 1760, with a minimum score of 530 on each test.

An applicant who is currently attending high school may qualify for admission to the University by examination alone without completing his or her high school program. The University will accept the Certificate of Proficiency upon successful completion of the California High School Proficiency Examination. The University will accept proficiency examinations from other states, and the GED, in place of a diploma. However, a student must still meet the Subject, Scholarship, and Examination Requirements.

This option is not extended to students who have completed 12 or more transferable college units prior to admission or to students who have completed a college course in one or more of the academic subjects covered by the SAT I: Subject Tests and Achievement Tests.

Admission by Exception

If you do not meet the regular admission requirements, you may be eligible for Admission by Exception. You will have to demonstrate your ability and potential to succeed at the University. Requests for consideration for Admission by Exception should be discussed in the essay portion of your application for admission. Contact the Admissions Office at the campus you wish to attend for more information.

Admission as a Transfer Student

Applicants who, since high school graduation, have registered in any collegiate institution and who have completed work in community colleges, summer school (other than a summer session immediately following high school graduation), or extension courses must apply for admission as a transfer student. An applicant may not disregard her or his previous college record and apply as a freshman. A transfer student who has earned fewer than 12 semester units of college credit subsequent to high school graduation must satisfy the examination requirement for freshman applicants. The examination requirement may be disregarded in determining eligibility for freshman standing if the applicant has earned more than 12 semester units of college credit subsequent to high school graduation. The requirements for admission as a transfer student vary according to the high school record. Current regulations applying to admission for transfer students who are California residents are as follows:

1. A student who was eligible for admission from high school, meaning that he/she satisfied the Subject, Scholarship and Examination Requirements, may be admitted after establishing an overall grade-point average of 2.00 or better.
2. A student who has met the Scholarship Requirement but has not completed the Subject Requirement in high school may establish eligibility by:
   a. completing with a final grade of C or better appropriate college courses in the required "a-f" high school subjects and
   b. establishing an overall grade-point average of 2.00 or better in all transferable college coursework.
3. A student who has met the Scholarship Requirement but has not met the Examination Requirement may establish eligibility by completing a minimum of 12 semester units of transferable work and earn an overall grade-point average of 2.00 or better in all transferable college coursework.
4. A student who was ineligible for admission as a freshman because of the Scholarship Requirement must:
   • Complete 60 semester units (90 quarter units) of transferable college credit with a grade point average of at least 2.4, and
   • Complete a course pattern requirement to include:
     a. Two transferable college courses (3 semester units or 4-5 quarter units each) in English composition; and
     b. One transferable college course (3 semester units or 4-5 quarter units) in Mathematical Concepts and Quantitative Reasoning; and
     c. Four transferable college courses (3 semester units or 4-5 quarter units each) chosen from at least two of the following subject areas: the arts and humanities, the social and behavioral sciences, the physical and biological sciences.

The current admission requirements for nonresident transfer applicants are the same as those for residents except that nonresidents must have a grade point average of 2.8 or higher in all transferable college coursework.
Courses from City College of San Francisco Acceptable at All Campuses of the University of California
(The following information is based upon information received from the University at the time of the publication of this catalog. The University may decide after the publication of this catalog to limit or not to accept units earned in some City College courses. Further information, when it is received from the University, will be made available to students through their counselors.)

1. The University of California (all campuses) accepts as elective credit toward graduation the units earned in the courses listed below, subject to the limitations and exclusions noted.

2. The following is a complete list of City College courses for which the University of California accepts credit, subject to the limitations listed. If a City College course does not appear on this list, the course is not accepted for credit by the University of California.

City College courses which are accepted for credit by all campuses of the University of California (valid 1998-1999):

The University accepts transfer credit as indicated above, but does not accept more than 70 semester units of such credit toward graduation. Courses in excess of 70 semester units will receive subject credit and may be used to satisfy University subject requirements. The University does not accept credit that students have been granted for military service, nor does the University necessarily accept credit that City College of San Francisco has granted for work completed at other institutions.

General Graduation Requirements

Students may satisfy the general University requirements in American institutions and United States history and in Subject
A as follows:

American Institutions and United States History. At some campuses appropriate courses taken in high school satisfy this requirement. Students may also satisfy this requirement by completing the appropriate course or courses at City College of San Francisco.

Subject A. Evidence of having fulfilled one of the following constitutes satisfaction of this requirement (the examinations indicated in 1-5 below must be completed prior to admission):

1. A score of 600 or higher in the English Composition Test or SAT II Writing Subject Test;
2. A score of 3, 4, or 5 on the College Board Advanced Placement
Examination in English;
3. A score of “Pass for Credit” on the California State University
English Equivalency Examination;
4. A score 5 or higher on the International Baccalaureate Higher Level Examination in English (Language A only);
5. Achieve a score of “pass” on the Subject A Examination.
6. Completion with a final grade of C or higher in English 1A.

Breadth Requirements

Students have the option to fulfill the lower division breadth and general education requirements by completing either the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum
(IGETC) or the specific lower division breadth and general education requirements of the school or college of the University of California to which the student intends to transfer.

If a student does not complete the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum before transferring, the student will be subject to the regulations regarding breadth requirements of the school or college to which the student has been admitted.

In general, it is not advisable for transfer students preparing for engineering majors (at any UC campus) to use the IGETC.
Students entering “high unit” majors, such as those in the sciences, can follow the IGETC but must be careful to complete any needed lower division major preparation.

Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum
(IGETC) for 1998-99

NOTE: The new IGETC for 1999-2000 is available in the Counseling Office, the Transfer Center or WebAssist, www.assist.org.

Completion of all the requirements in the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) will permit a student to transfer from a community college to a campus in either the California State University or the University of Caliifornia system (generally in those majors at the U.C. campus which are included in those offered in the College of Letters and Science) without the need, after transfer, to take additional lower-division, general education courses to satisfy campus general education requirements.

CHECK WITH YOUR COUNSELOR OR THE U.C.
CAMPUS WHICH YOU PLAN TO ATTEND TO DETER-Mine if you may use IGETC or if you must FOLLOW THE CAMPUS-SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS FOR YOUR PARTICULAR MAJOR.

The course requirements for ALL areas must be completed before IGETC can be certified. ALL courses must be completed with grades of "C" or better. For IGETC certification procedures, see a counselor.

University of California, Berkeley

Requirements of the University
American Institutions and United States History Requirement
Candidates for a bachelor’s degree must satisfy the requirement in American Institutions or United States history by one of the following ways:
1. By completing in high school, two semesters of U.S. history with a final grade of C or higher, or one semester of U.S. government and one semester of U.S. history with final grades of C or higher; or
2. By completing, at City College of San Francisco, one course from the following: History 17A, 17B or Political Science 1
3. By passing certain examinations with scores as indicated:
   a. Passing two essay examinations, one in U.S. history and one in U.S. government will satisfy both the American History and American Institutions requirements. These University examinations are based upon a reading list, are graded pass/not pass, and are offered on campus twice each semester. Students wishing to take the examinations may request reading lists, sample examination answers, and test dates from the American History and Institutions Office, Room 29, Dwinelle Hall; or
   b. Passing the SAT II in American history with a score of 500 or higher will satisfy the American History Requirement.
   c. Passing the College Board Advanced Placement examination in American history with a score of 3, 4, or 5 will satisfy the American History Requirement.

The student may combine the above alternatives so that either requirement may be satisfied by examination, completion of a course, evidence of equivalency.

Berkeley Campus American Cultures Breadth Requirement
The Berkeley campus American Cultures breadth requirement must be completed by all students. Students may satisfy this requirement by completing, with a minimum grade of C- or P, a course expressly approved for this purpose by the appropriate committee of the Berkeley Division of the Academic Senate.
Courses offered in satisfaction of the American Cultures breadth requirement must be integrative and comparative and address theoretical and analytical issues relevant to understanding race, culture, and ethnicity in American history and society. Each course will take substantial account of groups drawn from at least three of the following: African Americans, American Indians, Asian Americans, Chicanos/Latinos, and European Americans. A course used in satisfaction of the American Cultures requirement is not precluded from satisfying other requirements.

Four courses at CCSF have been approved to satisfy this requirement:
Labor Studies 100
Music 26
Anthropology 3AC
Political Science 12

Requirements for the College of Letters and Science
Students who plan to be graduated from the College of Letters and Science, which offers majors in the fields of Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences, and Interdisciplinary Studies, must satisfy both major and breadth requirements. The other five schools and colleges of the University have different majors and breadth requirements. Students in the College of Letters and Science are advised to complete as many of the breadth requirements of the College as possible during their freshman and sophomore years. A student may earn 70 semester units toward a University degree at a community college. Subject credit for courses in excess of these units will be granted.

Major Requirements (College of Letters and Science)
Lower-division requirements for selected majors in the College of Letters and Science and for other colleges of the University are described in the articulation agreements available at Web-Assist, www.assist.org, the counselors’ offices, the Transfer Center (Room 132, Science Hall) and in the College Library. New junior transfer students who have completed 60 or more transferable units at the time of admission must declare a major by the end of their first semester of enrollment by filing a Petition to Declare a Major. Indication of a major in the application for admission does not constitute a declaration of a major, but students are expected to declare a major in the field in which they have been admitted.

College of Letters and Science General Education (Breadth) Requirements
The College of Letters and Science requires transfer students to fulfill two sets of requirements: 1) essential skills and 2) seven-course breadth. NOTE: Completion of IGETC (certified by CCSF) waives both of the requirements. (The essential skills requirement must be satisfied by the end of the spring term that precedes the first semester at U.C., Berkeley. The seven-course requirement must be completed before graduation from U.C., Berkeley.)

1. Essential Skills
There are three essential skills requirements: a) reading and composition, b) quantitative reasoning, and c) foreign language. All courses used to satisfy these requirements must be taken for a letter grade.
a. Reading and Composition (R&C):

English 1A and 1B

(NOTE: Incoming transfer students can satisfy this requirement by scoring 5 on the Advanced Placement Examination in English Literature and Composition. The first half of this requirement can be satisfied by scoring 4 on the Advanced Placement Examination in English Literature and Composition or by scoring 4 or 5 on the Advanced Placement Examination in English Language and Composition.)

b. Quantitative Reasoning (QR):

Computer and Information Science 111, 112, 113, 118, 119
Mathematics 75, 80, 97, 100A, 100B, 110A, 110B, 110C, 115, 120, 125, 130

(NOTE: Incoming transfer students can also fulfill this requirement by scoring:

- 600 on the SAT I or
- 550 on the SAT II Mathematics Subject Examination, Level I or II if taken before May 1995 or
- 570 on the Level I Examination or
- 520 on the Level II Examination or
- 28 on the American College Test (ACT) or
- 3, or better on the Advanced Placement Examination in Calculus AB or BC or
- 3 or better on the Advanced Placement Examination in Computer Science AB or
- C or better on the General Certificate “A” Level Mathematics Examination)

c. Foreign Language (FL):

Chinese 2 or 2A/B
French 2 or 2A/B
German 2 or 2A/B
Italian 2 or 2A/B
Japanese 2 or 2A/B
Pilipino 2
Russian 2 or 2A/B
Spanish 2 or 2A/B

(NOTE: Incoming transfer students can also fulfill this requirement by scoring:

- C- or better in the third year of a foreign language in high school or
- on the SAT II Foreign Language Subject Examination if taken before May 1995 or
- 590 on SAT II if taken May 1995 or later or
- 3 or better on the Foreign Language Advanced Placement Examination or
- C or better on the General Certificate “A” or “O” Level Foreign Language Examination)

2. Seven-course Breadth:

NOTE: Course work must be met with actual course work (credit by examination or by advanced placement is not accepted). The minimum acceptable grade in each course is C- or P (CR) if the latter is equal to C- or better. The minimum units the course may have is two. No more than two courses offered by the same department may be used. Courses may be from one’s major department. Any course used for Breadth credit may not be used to meet Essential Skills (R&C, QR, and FL) requirements.

The seven courses must be distributed among the following areas of study:

Arts and Literature
Architecture 31A, 31B

City College Courses in the California Articulation Number System

The California Articulation Number (CAN) System is a course numbering system in use by postsecondary educational institutions in California. The numbering system provides a cross reference course identification number (the CAN System subject identifier plus a number) for semester courses which are transferable, lower division introductory courses commonly taught on California college and university campuses. Participating campuses agree to accept identically numbered CAN courses in lieu of their own courses from all other participating campuses for all purposes, recognizing that CAN courses are not necessarily identical in content, but are acceptable “in lieu of” each other. Below are the City College of San Francisco courses and their corresponding CAN System numbers as of February 1999. An updated CAN list can be found on the web at http://www.cansystem.org.
