

Join CCSF colleagues April 29 to visit Consumnes River College & Sacramento City College for new ideas in real-time distance learning

Consumnes River College, located in the Sacramento area, has developed a unique real-time interactive distance learning facility that allows students to view the instructor via television and phone in with question or comments during the actual class meeting. Sacramento City College is also involved with this type of instructional delivery and utilizes state-of-the-art equipment.

A trip to Consumnes River College and Sacramento City College is scheduled for Tuesday, April 29. A college van has been reserved and will leave the Ocean Avenue Campus at 7:30 A.M. and return in the late afternoon.

Those interested in touring the distance education facilities at these institutions and seeing faculty teach using this instructional delivery system are encouraged to contact Brian Ellison, Dean, Curriculum, Tenure Review and Faculty Evaluation, at (415) 239-3360 or email bellison@ccsf.edu.