

The Theatre Arts Department of City College of San Francisco presents

On the Razzle

Directed by David Parr

May 6 and 7 at 8 P.M.

May 8 at 2 P.M.

Diego Rivera Theatre
50 Phelan Avenue (at Judson)

Tickets are $10 general; $5 students, seniors, children & Theatre Bay Area members.

This hilarious farce comedy, written by Tom Stoppard, follows the misadventures of two shop clerks who decide to sneak out for a night on the town. There are romantic entanglements, mistaken identities and embarrassing revelations as they try to avoid discovery by their employer. This is Stoppard's version of the same Austrian play upon which Thornton Wilder based his "Merchant of Yonkers," and later, "The Matchmaker" and the musical "Hello, Dolly."