Carl Jew Interim Dean, Matriculation and Assessment

Larry Damato named chair of CCSF Transfer Center

Larry Damato, who began at City College of San Francisco in Spring of 1990 as a part-time counselor, takes over the reins of the Transfer Center as Department Chair. He began working in the Transfer Center in the fall of 2000 as a sabbatical replacement for Carl Jew and has continued to work in the Transfer Center since then.

Also at CCSF, Larry has been a counselor and Articulation officer. He earned his BS degree in the Biological Sciences and a Master of Arts in Counseling from the University of San Francisco. His Secondary Credential and Pupil Personnel Services/Counseling credentials were earned at USF.

Prior to joining CCSF, Larry was a high school teacher and administrator for 28 years.

CARL JEW

Carl Jew is the Interim Dean of Matriculation and Assessment. His appointment began on July 1, 2006 and will continue through June 30, 2007. Carl previously served as the Transfer Center Department Chair (2002-2006) and Coordinator (1993-2002).

At the 2006 Transfer Center Directors Association conference held in Irvine, California, he received the Ann Cade-Wilson Award — a perpetual award honoring transfer center directors for outstanding service toward improving the transfer process for community college students.

Carl earned the Master of Arts degree in Counseling from San Francisco State University and his Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from the University of California, Berkeley.

Celebrating 100 Years of Filipino Culture and Arts in America

On the occasion of "100 Years in America: Preserving Filipino Arts and Culture," Rose Beatrix Angeles (pictured at right) of the Sub-Commission on Cultural Heritage, and Carlo B. Ebeo, Commissioner for the Sub-Commission on Cultural Communities and Traditional Arts, spoke at City College of San Francisco. Their talks highlighted the centennial of the arrival of the first recorded Filipino migrant workers in the United States. Leo Paz, Chair, CCSF Philippine Studies Department, coordinated the September 12 talk. Chancellor Dr. Philip R. Day, Jr., extended the invitation to the Philippine representatives on behalf of Trustee Rodel Rodis.

Shared governance update

Planning and Budgeting Committee

On August 24, 2006, the Planning and Budgeting Council approved their May 30, 2006, minutes.

I. Summary: Budget Review Process Spring 2006

A. Chancellor Day distributed copies of the Budget Review and Recommendations Process Report #1, and of the Rough Cut Analysis produced jointly by his office and by the Office of Institutional Advancement.

1. These documents identified programs for further investigation, some because of enrollment data, others because of "detailed analysis" based on changes between the 1998/1999 and the 2004/2005 Academic Years.

2. PBC members noted the following:
(a) Some of these changes may be the result of combining noncredit and credit students (e.g., as in Culinary Arts and Hospitality Studies).

(b) Some programs are already recovering from a slump (e.g., Fire Science).

(c) High school exit testing and immigration reform legislation may impact others (e.g., ESL, TRST).

B. Dr. Day emphasized the need to do further fact-finding and analysis during the summer, and said that he would not finalize the list of programs until the PBC made policy recommendations in the Fall.

2006-05-30-01

Whereas, the PBC recognizes that the list of programs identified in the Rough Cut Analysis, is preliminary; and

Whereas, the PBC will not meet again until August; be it

Resolved, That the PBC authorize the District to conduct during the summer a process whose participants will:

- draft explanations for why programs appeared on the lists in the Rough Cut Analysis,
- continue the fact-finding and analysis,
- identify proposed criteria for interpreting the results of that analysis,
- identify proposed criteria for the next phase of review, and
- report back to the PBC in August, possibly with proposed policy recommendations.

II. Status Report: State Budget and CCSF Budget 2006-2007

A. Vice Chancellor Goldstein reported that the State Budget is still changing as the Senate and Assembly work out their differences in Conference Committee meetings. He hopes to know more about the impact on community colleges by June 15.

CHANCELLOR

SHARED GOVERNANCE PBC minutes May 30, 2006

B. Goldstein distributed copies of the General Fund Unrestricted Tentative Budget 2006–07. He made these observations:

1. The tentative budget assumes no increase in growth funding, even though CCSF is eligible for such funding if able to achieve growth.
2. It assumes also no change in noncredit apportionment and non credit equalization.
3. We may need to raise the international student fee but the budget does not reflect any increase.
4. The SFCDD has had a $25K deductible insurance policy. Goldstein is exploring possible cost-savings with a $50K deductible (but the budget assumes no change).
5. The tentative budget does not reflect any employee raises that may be negotiated.

2006–05–30–02

That the PBC approve the ~$173M tentative 2006-2007 CCSF Budget, as presented by Vice Chancellor Goldstein..

Banner upgrade scheduled

An upgrade of the City College Banner system is scheduled for October 6th through October 9th. The upgrade will be from version 6.2 to version 7.3. Testing has been underway with numerous departments for the past several months and is proceeding well.

Information sessions describing the changes in the new version will be held in room E3 on the following dates and times:

Thursday, October 5, 10A.M.–12 NOON

Monday, October 9, 10A.M.–12 NOON

Tuesday, October 10, 10A.M.–12 NOON

Additional information can be found by viewing the Banner section on the ITS website at www.ccsf.edu/its. If you have any questions regarding this conversion please telephone Tim Ryan at (415) 452-5352.

View heavens September 27

The Astronomy Department wishes to show you telescopic views of Earthshine on the crescent moon, the stormy planet Jupiter, many colorful living stars, and a star that's dying, too. Go to the roof of the Science Building Wednesday, September 27 from 7 to 9 P.M. If the weather is too cloudy there will be an astronomy slide show presentation in Science Building, Room 200. Witness the drama, awe, and fun or just learn something new! This free event is supported by the Office of Mentoring and Service-Learning.

Ayako Tanaka earns architecture scholarship, internship

Ayako Tanaka was awarded the 2006 Chong Partners Community Design Scholarship in Spring 2006. After a screening process by the City College of San Francisco Department of Architecture, four candidates submitted portfolios of architectural work and were interviewed by Associate partners at Chong Partners office downtown where each student presented an architecture project produced in a CCSF Architecture Design Studio. The committee awarded Tanaka the $2500 transfer scholarship based upon her strong portfolio and her ability to formulate a design direction in her work at such an early stage in her career. In addition, she was offered a summer internship at the office. For the first time, the committee was so impressed with the scholarship candidates that they also offered two of the other three candidates (Wei Huang and Carlos Endrigas) internships as well.

Architecture students CBIF scholarships

The Spring 2006 California Building and Industry Foundation (CBIF) has awarded Lei Huang and Yulian Digilov, both architecture majors, each a $500 award for use in their education. Digilov plans to use it at CSU San Luis Obispo where he is transferring and Huang will dedicate the monies to his continued studies here at CCSF. Andrew Chandler, AIA, Chair, Department of Architecture, tells City Currents.

Remembering Bob Gurney

A Gathering to Celebrate the Life of the late CCSF faculty member Bob Gurney will be held Sunday, September 24, from 3 to 5 P.M. in the Wicker Room of Meadowlands Hall at Dominican University of California, San Rafael. Please bring an appetizer, snack, dessert, beverages or wine to share. RSVP to Patricia Delich: pdelich@ccsf.edu.

Briefly told...

Deborah Shaw, a member of the Theatre Arts Department faculty since 1987, has become the newest board member at the Asian American Theatre Company.

Gail Barton, PE & Dance Department, has been selected to serve on the Isadora Duncan Awards Committee. Affectionately known as the “Izzies,” the annual awards could be thought of as the “Emmys” for dance in the San Francisco Bay Area, the second center of dance in the country after New York. Committee members collectively view more than 400 performances a year before making nominations in nine categories (see www.izzies-sf.org). Gail started the summer by arranging for more than 200 discount tickets for CCSF students to attend the SF Ethnic Dance Festival (itself an Izzie recipient) at the Palace of Fine Arts.

CCSF alumnus Alec Kenworthy has the lead role of Dr. Frank N. Furter in the musical Rocky Horror Show at the Town Hall Theatre in Lafayette. “Alec is really great in the role,” says Judy Hubbell of the Music Department faculty. Megan Miller, a Voice Mentor in the Spring and Fall 2006 semesters, is performing in the San Francisco Lyric Opera production of Trovatore by Giuseppe Verdi. Also in this production is former CCSF voice mentor Joseph Trumbo. “He was our first and only 15-year-old voice mentor a few years back,” notes Hubbell.
