John Adams Campus mural celebrated

Celebrate Filipino American Month

Pilipinos for Education, Art, Culture, and Empowerment (PEACE) of City College of San Francisco will hold "Sandaang Bagsak: Celebrating 100 Years of the Filipino American Movement" on Friday, October 27 from 4 to 7 P.M. in Smith Hall Cafeteria. The free event honors October's Filipino American History Month. The event theme, which literally translates to "100 down" is a word-play on "Isang Bagsak," or "One Down," which is a commonly used expression of unity.

PEACE member and Ocean Campus Student Body President Anthony Navarro said, "We wanted to organize this event to educate the CCSF campus on Philippine/Filipino American history, expose students to Filipino culture and resources, and raise student awareness on current issues affecting Filipinos." Organizers plan to honor the lives of Jeff Trinidad, founder of PEACE; Helen Toribio, Asian American Studies Faculty; and Tony Guiuan, Counselor and Philippine Studies Instructor. "We felt it was important to honor the lives of those who contributed and fought for many of the resources we have at City College today," says Gene Apellido of PEACE.

Entertainment will include Pinoy hip-hop group Native Guns, spoken word trio Rhapsodistas, and The Rat Pack break dancing crew.

For more information, please call PEACE at (415) 239-3660. This event is organized by PEACE, an AS recognized club, and supported through a generous grant from the Cultural Affairs of the Associated Students and the Concert and Lecture Series.

Shared governance update

GUIDELINES FOR COMMITTEE CHAIRS

Being a committee chair does not have to be a burden. Here are some guidelines for running a committee smoothly.

ARCHIVE

You will probably inherit from the previous chair(s) the committee's archive. This can range from a binder (typical), to a folder of computer files (for the technophiles), to the contents of a storage facility on campus (rare).

- Unless the committee elects a separate archivist, you are responsible for the materials in the archive.
- The previous chair(s) should brief you on the most important parts of the archive.

MEMBERSHIP ROSTER

Keep the committee roster up to date. Browse the Shared Governance website (http://www.ccsf.edu/Offices/Shared_Governance) and check that the information there is accurate.

- You should receive notices from the appropriate appointing body when a faculty, classified staff, administrator or student is appointed as a new member. The notice should include the length of the member's term, and the member's status as voting member or as resource member.
- Has someone been absent for three meetings in a row? Contact the appropriate appointing agent to see whether a new appointment is appropriate. Meanwhile, you may act as if the committee has one less member for purposes of quorum.

NEW MEMBERS

You (or your designee) are responsible for orienting all new members to the work of the committee. New members should receive information on at least the following items:

- Role and function of the committee
- Past minutes
- List of committee members
- Background on current issues in front of the committee
- Schedule of meeting dates, times, and places
- Protocols for conduct of meetings (useful for large committees)

MEETING SCHEDULE

You set the meeting schedule (dates and times) and reserve the rooms.

- Try to be as accommodating as possible to your committee members.

Guidelines for Committee Chairs

- Email the schedule to Attila Gabor at the Shared Governance Office for posting on the website (agabor@ccsf.edu) and the City Currents Master Calendar.
- If a change in the schedule is necessary, announce this as broadly and quickly as possible.

AGENDAS

You set the meeting agendas.

- Usually we place items on the agenda about anything requested, but you have the option of setting specific rules (e.g., an agenda item must be submitted by a committee member at least a week in advance).
- Email the meeting agendas to Attila Gabor at the Shared Governance Office (agabor@ccsf.edu) so that he can post it on the website 72 hours before the meeting.
- Near the start of each academic year, each committee should read the CCSF Mission Statement (<http://www.ccsf.edu/Catalog/Admin/mission.html>) and the committee's purpose statement (http://www.ccsf.edu/Offices/Shared_Governance). Try to adhere to the philosophies expressed in these statements. If your committee wants to change its purpose statement, consult the chair of your parent committee/council.

MINUTES

Unless the committee elects a separate secretary, you are responsible for minutes. The minutes don't have to be an epic transcript of the meetings. The minutes only need:

- attendance (members present and absent)
- issues discussed
- outcomes/recommendations/resolutions

The committee should decide which of these two options it will follow:

- (1) The committee can authorize the secretary to write and publish the minutes without further review.
- (2) Otherwise, the committee can require that the secretary circulate the draft minutes before or at the next meeting for suggested edits and approval.

In either case the official minutes should be sent to the Shared Governance Office (agabor@ccsf.edu) and to the chair of the parent committee/council within a week.

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS

Committees are not empowered to change policy, but they can recommend changes in policy. Here's how:

- Pass a resolution recommending the change.
- Ask the chair of your parent committee/council to put your recommendation on the next agenda.
- Attend that meeting and speak to your recommendation.

ANNUAL REPORT

At the end of each academic year, the Office of Shared Governance will send out the Annual Report Template. Fill in the fields for issues you discussed and recommendations you passed. This should take only a few minutes if you have a set of minutes to work from.

COMMITTEE OR SUBCOMMITTEE

The subcommittee chair has the responsibility to assure that the subcommittee:

- Forwards its proposal(s) to the parent committee for approval.
- Gives regular (at least once a semester) reports on its activities to the parent committee (in person). If the chair is not available, another person can fill in.

If the subcommittee did not meet, that should be communicated to the parent committee.

The committee chair has the responsibility to assure that:

- The subcommittee's report is on the committee's agenda, at least once a semester.
- The subcommittee's report is included in the minutes. If a subcommittee did not meet, that should be reflected in the minutes.
- Any proposal forwarded from the subcommittee is placed on the committee's agenda.

ELECTION

Have you been chair for a year? It's time to elect a new one, or to be re-elected if you are willing.

- Prepare to mentor the incoming chair or co-chairs. Turn over to them the committee's archive.
- Notify Attila Gabor at the Shared Governance Office (agabor@ccsf.edu) and the chair of the parent committee/council of the change.

APPOINTING BODIES

The CCSF Shared Governance system has four constituent groups and accordingly four appointing bodies. They are the following:

Academic Senate for faculty (Fred Chavaria at 415-239-3202 or Fred Teti at 415-239-3611).

Administrators' Association for administrators (Brian Ellison at 415-239-3360).

SEIU 790 for classified staff (Athena Steff at 415-239-3920 or David Gallerani at 415-452-5452).

Associated Students for students (Leonard Arnold at 415-239-3108).

Seminars explore careers in psychology

Please let your students know about a three-part Career Exploration Seminar co-sponsored by the Psych 61 Internship class and the CCSF Psychology Club. All members of the CCSF community are invited to attend all three of the seminars held on Mondays, October 23, November 20 and December 4 from 6 to 8:30 P.M. in Batmale 513.

October 23 will focus on jobs and career paths. CCSF Alumni Annette Taylor, Josephine Angeles and Gladys Mendelson will discuss psychology jobs with a Bachelors or a Masters degree. Psychology students will be joined by Behavioral Science faculty discussing career paths with clinical licensure and/or a MS or PhD. The evening will be rounded out with a presentation by Dr. Charles Vella, Chief Psychologist and Head of Neuropsychology at Kaiser San Francisco, who will talk about important career trends in the 21st century.

November 20 will focus on schools and how to find the best match. Featured speakers will include CCSF Dean of Matriculation Carl Jew, CCSF Counselor Donna Hayes, and CCSF Alumni talking about their experiences in undergraduate and graduate psychology programs at UCB (Angel Rodriguez), UCD (Corin Greenberg and Lea Vella), SFSU (Jason Durant), CIIS (Jaime Hammond), and Sonoma State (Jasmine Benzvi). Expect to hear tips and the real low-down!

December 4 will focus on internships and how participating in a PSYCH 61 internship can help you both understand the field and boost your application to psychology programs. Students will have an opportunity to meet this semester's interns, network with their supervisors and get a head start on selecting an internship for the Spring 07 semester. All three seminars are open to anyone who is a psych major or who is curious to explore the field.

Local candidates appear on EATv

EATv Channel 27 in partnership with the League of Women Voters of San Francisco, Access SF and SF Government TV, will present Decision 2006 on Friday, October 27 and Friday, November 3. Tannis Reinhertz to Swim-A-Mile

Dear friends,

Many of you know (and some don't) that I'm a nine-year breast cancer survivor. During and after my treatment, The Women's Cancer Resource Center (WCRC) became an important part of my treatment and healing.

This is my third year participating in WCRC's Swim-A-Mile fundraiser and I'd like to ask you to sponsor me as I swim a mile to fight cancer. All WCRC services are provided for free and 75% of all WCRC resources are dedicated to program support for women dealing with cancer.

You can sponsor me by pledging online at: <http://www.wcrc.org/swim/pledge> my nickname is: swimtannis or by sending a check payable to WCRC to Tannis Reinhertz, 455 Lagunitas Ave., Oakland, CA 94610. All donations are tax deductible: Tax ID #: 94-3131204.

Thanks in advance for your thoughtful consideration and support. You Rock!

Tannis Reinhertz
