Congresswoman Jackie Speier announces National Science Foundation grant to CCSF to build MPICT

Congresswoman Jackie Speier (above, second from left) announced a National Science Foundation grant to City College of San Francisco (CCSF) for the purpose of founding the Mid-Pacific Information and Communications Technologies (MPICT) Regional Center. She is pictured with (from left) CCSF Trustee John Rizzo, Chair of the Board's Technology Committee; Chancellor Dr. Don Q. Griener; and Board Vice President Dr. Natalie Berg. Speier made the announcement at a press conference November 14 at the CCSF Mission Campus. Pictured at the head table at the press conference are (below, from left to right) Mike Murphy of Foothill College, Rick Graziani of Cabrillo College, Michael McKeever of Santa Rosa Junior College, Dr. Jim Wright, Vice President of Academic Affairs and Deputy Superintendent of Ohlone Community College District; Gary George, President and CEO of IP Networks, Jim Dolgonas, President and CEO of the Corporation for Educational Networking Initiatives in California (CENIC); Trustee Rizzo; Congresswoman Speier; Chancellor Griener; Board Vice President Berg; Dr. Alice Murillo, CCSF Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs; Dr. Pierre Berry, MPICT Principal Investigator; James B. Jones, MPICT Executive Director; Carmen Lamha, Chair, Computer Networking and Information Technology Department; Dr. Carlota del Portillo, Dean of the Mission Campus; Constance Conner, Chair, Computer Science Department and MPICT Co-PI; and Tim Ryan, Network Manager and Co-PI. MPICT will coordinate, promote and improve the quality of information and communications technologies (ICT) education in northern California, northern Nevada, southern Oregon, Hawaii and the Pacific Territories. Cabrillo College, Foothill College, Ohlone College and Santa Rosa Junior College are MPICT sub-awardees.

Whereas, students in many noncredit classes are expected to progress at their own paces; and

Whereas, students may make satisfactory progress but require more than one term to complete the curriculum of a course; and

Whereas, there is currently no grade that adequately describes such satisfactory progress for many students in noncredit classes; and

Whereas, the Title 5 areas of faculty primacy include grading policies; therefore be it

Resolved that the Senate approve adding SP for Satisfactory Progress to the Catalog list of grading option for noncredit courses; and be it further

Resolved, that the Senate direct the Senate Officers to pursue this addition with the appropriate administrators and the Board.
