City College’s continues to have a diverse student population. Asian and white students Credit enrollments are increasing at a rate similar to the overall increase in Fall enrollments for Credit (15%). The growth in Latino ethnicities (26%) is outpacing the overall increase; African American enrollments are also increasing (6%) but at a rate less than the overall increase.