The number of new, first-time Credit students in the 16-19 age group increased since Fall 1994.

The number of new, first time students (students with no prior college) accounted for 12% of Credit enrollment in Fall 2000—of that 12%, less than half (1,634) were 16-19 years old.