

City College of San Francisco
WASC Visiting Team Roster
March 20-23, 2006

Dr. Constance Carroll (Team Chair)
Chancellor
San Diego Community College District

Dr. Constance M. Carroll will serve as chair of the visiting evaluation team. She is currently the chancellor of the San Diego Community College District, a multi-college district composed of 3 colleges and a large noncredit division. The total enrollment of the district is over 100,000 students each semester. Constance Carroll served as president of three community colleges in California before becoming chancellor. Dr. Carroll is a past chair of the WASC Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, and has chaired numerous accreditation evaluation visits.

Mr. William Craft (Team Assistant)
Dean, School of Learning Resources
San Diego Mesa College

Mr. William P. Craft will serve as the Team Assistant for the visiting evaluation team. He is currently the Dean of Learning Resources and Information Technology at San Diego Mesa College. He directs Mesa's Learning Resource Center and is also responsible for all Information Technology projects on the campus. Mr. Craft holds a BA in Physical Geography from the Honors College at Michigan State University and a MA in Liberal Arts (Great Books) from St. John's College in Annapolis MD. Before joining the administrative team at Mesa College, Mr. Craft served as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Navy for 31 years, retiring as a Captain in 2001.

Lisa Anderson
Mathematics Professor
Ventura College

Lisa Whelan Anderson is an Associate Math Professor at Ventura College and has been full-time with the department for 10 years. She received her Bachelors of Science Degree in Mathematics from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo and her Masters of Science Degree in Mathematics from Cal State Northridge. Ms. Anderson received the Ventura College Academic Senate Faculty of the Year Award in 1998 and the E.O.P.S. Teacher of the Year 1999. She thinks her job is the greatest job in the world and she loves teaching math at a community college.

Ms. Victoria Atherton
Library Director
Evergreen Valley College

Professional experience—Evergreen Valley College (San Jose, California)—Library director since 1990. Prior experience includes: branch manager San Jose Public Library, Supervising Librarian children's and outreach services Mountain View Public Library, Regional Children's Librarian Los Angeles County Public Library, Government documents librarian at California State University Fullerton.

Recent projects at Evergreen Valley College include design and construction of a new Library/Educational Technology Center which opened June, 2004, development of a local Evergreen community Heritage Room for the new Library, and co-chair of the campus accreditation self study (2004).

Professional affiliations include membership in the American Library Association, LRACCC (Learning Resources Association of California Community Colleges), and CCL (Council of Chief Librarians).

Victoria Atherton has served on four WASC visiting teams prior to the visit to City College.

Educational background: BA in English from Eckerd College in Florida and a MLS (Masters in Library Science) from the University of Kentucky.

Ms. Cathy Itnyre
Associate Professor of Philosophy and History
Copper Mountain College

Cathy Jorgensen Itnyre is Professor of Philosophy and History at Copper Mountain College. She is the accreditation liaison officer at her college, and has been on three evaluation teams since 2003.

Ms. Eva Kinsman
Trustee
Copper Mountain College CCD

Eva Kinsman is a member of the board of trustees for Copper Mountain Community College which is located in Joshua Tree California. She is a retired an educator having served for 30 years as a high school and college teacher, school principal and college trustee. Mrs. Kinsman is a 25 year veteran of WASC accrediting teams.

Dr. Jing Luan
Chief Planning,
Research and Knowledge Systems Officer
Cabrillo College

Dr. Jing Luan, Chief Planning, Research & Knowledge Systems Officer and adjunct faculty at Cabrillo College, has been the President of his trade organizations, the RP Group, Chair of Overseas Chinese Association of Institutional Research, President of California Association of Institutional Research (CAIR) and President of National Community College Council for Research and Planning (NCCCRP). He holds a Ph.D. in Higher Education Management & Policy Studies from Arizona State University and Certificate of Information Technology Management from University of California at Santa Cruz. He is a published author of many articles and book chapters. He has taught data mining to international audiences at universities and companies in the past six years.

Dr. Erlinda Martinez
President
Santa Ana College

Dr. Erlinda Martinez has been president of Santa Ana College since March 2005. Prior to joining Santa Ana College, Dr. Martinez served as vice president of student services/assistant superintendent for Cerritos College in Norwalk, California, where she was instrumental in developing the college's master plan and passage of a general obligation bond measure. Under her leadership since 1995, the college created a new gathering center for the campus including an amphitheater, and streamlined student registration processes.

Before joining Cerritos College, Dr. Martinez was administrative dean and dean of students for Mission College in Santa Clara for nine years, and served as director of student affairs for El Camino College in Torrance, California.

Dr. Martinez earned a doctorate in education from the University of Southern California; a master's degree in counselor education from California State University, Los Angeles; and a bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of California at Riverside.

Ms. Vangie Meneses
Vice President Student Services
Coastline Community College

Vangie Meneses has served as the Dean of Counseling & Matriculation at Cuyamaca College in San Diego County for the last seven years and also was Acting Vice President of Student Development and Services. She has recently been appointed Vice President of Student Services & Economic Development at Coastline Community College. She has been in student services in higher education for over 25 years serving as a counselor, instructor, Director of Tutorial Services, Director of Student Support Services, Associate Dean of Student Development, and Interim Vice President of Student Services. She is one of the founding members of the California Community Colleges Matriculation Professionals Association, and served as the Association's president the last two years. Ms. Meneses is an ardent advocate of community colleges and students' access to higher education.

Ms. Kerrin McMahan
Distance Education Coordinator
East Los Angeles College

Kerrin McMahan is Distance Education Coordinator at East Los Angeles College, where she organizes online education at the campus and provides technical support and training to faculty teaching online. In her spare time she is also an Associate Professor of Philosophy and chair of the Department of Philosophy. She holds a BA in Journalism from the University of Idaho, an MA in journalism from the Ohio State University, an MA in Interdisciplinary Studies (philosophy and communication) from the University of Idaho, and advanced to candidacy for the Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of California, Riverside. On weekends she moonlights at Disneyland, where she courteously and efficiently stitches names on Mouseketeer ears.

Dr. Richard van Pelt
Facilities Director
Pasadena City College

Richard van Pelt was born in Canada, and educated in England and the United States. He earned a B.S. degree in Psychology, M.S. in Business Organization Management, an MBA, and a Ph.D. in Administration and Management. He has also earned four certifications: Certified Facility Manager, Facilities Management Administrator, Real Property Administrator, and Certified Business Continuity Planner. He is currently Director of Facilities and Engineering Services at Pasadena City College, where he is also an adjunct instructor in the Business and Computer Technology Division.

Mr. Henry Quan
Professor, Philosophy
Southwestern College

Mr. Henry Quan is a Professor of Philosophy at Southwestern College in Chula Vista, California. He holds a BA, and MA in Philosophy and has 20 years experience teaching. He is the author of Logic, Thinking, and Reality and is the translator and commenter for The Dao Te Ching. His area of interest is Logic.

Mr. Scott Thomason
Vice President, Business Services
College of the Redwoods

Mr. Scott Thomason has been Vice President, Chief Business Officer for Redwoods Community College District since 2001 (5 years). From 1995 to 2001 (6 years), he served as the Chief Student Services Officer for West Hills Community College District. From 1980 to 1995 (15 years), he served as a classified manager (Business Office Manager), and then as a Certificated Administrator (Director of Financial Aid and Dean of Student Services) in the Business Services, and then Student Services areas of Reedley College - State Center Community College District. He currently serves on the Association of College Business Officers (ACBO) Board as Regional Coordinator for Region I. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration and an MBA from CSU Fresno.

Dr. Dennis White
Vice President of Instruction
Irvine Valley College

Dr. White's educational career spans 39 years. During this time he has served as a community college administrator for 22 years, and professor for 18 years. At the University of Houston, he developed the art education doctoral program, and later at this same institution the first graduate program in computer graphics and interactive media in the State of Texas. He twice was awarded the coveted Apple Distinguish Educator distinction for excellence in advancing technology in education. Dr. White currently serves as the Vice President of Instruction and technology services at Irvine Valley College.
