HELLO!

We have a great idea.

Why not join the Friends of the Library!

We are looking for new and returning members.

Become part of a GREAT organization,

AND

Support all the CCSF libraries at the same time!

The libraries need you. The budget is tight. Membership is only $10/year, unless you have a generous gene. We gratefully accept larger contributions!

Donations help pay for many things including new books, materials, last minute increases in journal subscriptions, and library events. Visit our website at www.ccsf.edu/fol for the FOL bookstore hours, meeting times and other news.

Thank you for your help.

Dear Friends of the Library,

It is fall again, and I am pleased to write this letter to so many loyal supporters of the CCSF libraries. Our membership is growing and your continuing support is our backbone.

This fall our primary goal is to expand our membership. During our October membership drive, please invite the members of your office, department, lunch table, or neighborhood to join the Friends of the Library. Every new member we find, we increase our base of support and our ability to insure the excellence of our libraries.

Every year we usually have an opening on the FOL Board and I especially encourage you to attend a meeting if you are interested in becoming a board member. We usually meet four times per year on Tuesday afternoons. Meeting times are posted on our website at www.ccsf.edu/fol.

Hope to see you at a meeting, and hope you are successful in introducing a friend to the Friends of the Library this fall!

Sincerely,

Diana Markham
