

City College of San Francisco
Foreign Language Department

Certificate of Completion

Starting in Fall 2002, City College of San Francisco students may earn certificates of completion in Chinese (Mandarin), French, German, Italian, Japanese, Pilipino, Russian and Spanish.

A CCSF foreign language certificate of completion can provide you and prospective employers with documented evidence of your knowledge, skill, persistence and academic accomplishment in your language study.

You may earn a certificate of completion in a particular language by completing 15 or more units of coursework with a grade of C/Credit or better at CCSF in that language within a five year period.

At least 9 of the units must come from the core sequences in a particular language: 1, 1A, 1B, 2, 2A, 2B, 3, 3A, 3B, 4, 4A, 4B, 5, 16, 17, 31, 31A, 31B, 32. The other elective units may come from any other CCSF courses in that language. The College Catalog and the Schedules of Classes indicate which courses are offered in each language.

To apply, you must be currently enrolled in a course which can be counted toward earning the certificate. Please check the class schedule for important dead lines.

For more information, contact the Foreign Language Department in Arts 202, telephone 415-239-3223.
