

Sentence Strips for the "School of the Americas"

No más, no more, we must stop this dirty war.

I am not an invalid.

A grave injustice has been done.

If there's time left after we get out, we might want to go into a prison ministry.

Shame on that judge.

You violated the law.

It is not because of the training they received at the School of Americas.

The School promotes democratic values and respect for human rights.

The Colombian military can still train there.

The School is the key to the war against drugs.