

Contemplative Pedagogy: Explore a wide range of practices that support successful teaching through the cultivation of attention, awareness, listening and the development of faculties required for insight and creativity.

When: Monday, March 14 and Monday, March 21

Time: 2-4pm

Presenters: Robin Gates

Room: MUB 280

Teaching with a multicultural perspective. This will be the same presentation on two different days.

When: Wednesday, March 16

Time: 2:30-4:30pm

Presenters: Mary Bravewoman, Tracy Burt, and Chris Francisco

Room: ARTS 311

An overview of student services at CCSF.

Representatives from New Counseling, Continuing Counseling, Financial Aid, Extended Opportunity Programs and Services (EOPS), Disabled Students Programs & Services (DSPS), Career Development Counseling Department, Transfer Center, Multicultural Retention programs and Learning Assistance Center will discuss the services they provide to students.

When: Tuesday, March 22

Time: 2:30-4:30pm

Presenter: Representatives from Student Services

Room: MUB 180

Learn how to promote motivation, anti-procrastination and other strategies that help drive college success.

When: Wednesday, April 13

Time: 1-3pm

Presenter: Ronnie Owens and Amber Strauss

Room: MUB 188

Using Technology in the Classroom to Improve Retention and Student Success (Devlin-Clancy) Departments discuss how they integrate technology into their class structure and assignments to help with student retention and success.

When and Where: TBA

Contact: Beth Cataldo

Integrating Student Services

Faculty discuss how they integrate student services into coursework, lesson plans and assignments.

When and Where: TBA

Contact: Beth Cataldo