

Office of the Chancellor

OFFICIAL COLLEGE STATEMENT

September 20, 2017

Dear Colleagues:

Two important notes for this Wednesday.

Vice Chancellor Anna Davies

As many of you know, Anna has been away on FMLA leave to care for her parents. I spoke with Anna on Monday. She informed me that her family responsibilities and care-giving will require an extension of her leave until the beginning of the spring semester in January. She therefore asked to step away from her duties and that we appoint an acting Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs until her return.

First and foremost, we extend to Anna our heartfelt support at this time. We offer our well wishes and prayers to Anna and her family. She knows that I want her to return to her important duties here at City College as soon as she is able. Anna also knows that we will all support her every step of the way until that day arrives.

I have consulted with Vice Chancellor Dianna Gonzalez and asked her to create and supervise the process for the search and recommendation to the Board of Trustees for an acting VCAA as soon as possible. Please let Dianna know if you have any questions.

Rosh Hashanah

The observance of the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah, begins today at sundown and continues through Friday evening. We deeply respect and support our Jewish colleagues and students, as well as colleagues and students of all faiths. Please make accommodations as appropriate so that our Jewish colleagues and students may observe these Holy Days this week.

Shalom,

Mark
