HAPPY ADMINISTRATIVE PROFESSIONALS DAY

Dear Colleagues:

I'm so grateful for this day because it gives me the chance to send a special heartfelt "THANK YOU" to every one of our colleagues who are administrative professionals and work so hard every day for the good of CCSF.

Most of our CCSF administrative professionals are classified staff, members of SEIU 1021. Day in and day out at every one of our ten campus centers, they do the most important tasks at the front line of serving our students, our faculty and our administrators (like me). I have often said that the official job description of an administrative professional is, “keep things running smoothly.” And you all do it so well and with such good grace and good humor.

I’ve learned in my first year with you how important you are to our mission. You have often made my day with your acts of thoughtfulness and kindness. For this I thank you so very much and hope you have the wonderful day you deserve knowing we all say “THANK YOU!”

With kind regards and best wishes,
