Subject: Program Review - We Need Your Feedback!

Dear CCSF classified staff, faculty, and administrators,

Thanks to everyone who participated in the Fall 2015 program review process. The 100+ completed reviews provide an incredible (and publicly accessible) record of amazing work from across the College. Shortly we'll be heading into Spring 2016 decision-making about resource requests. We'll also be using completed reviews to inform the College's multiple planning and evaluation efforts. But in the meantime, we need to learn just a little more from you...

We've already begun to look toward refining next year's process. Please take a few minutes to complete the Program Review Feedback Survey. Even if you weren't responsible for writing a program review, we want to know about your participation in discussions on improvements and changes in your area. Your opinion counts! Thank you in advance for responding to the survey and contributing to our collective effectiveness.

Have a wonderful winter break,

Pam Mery
Dean of Institutional Effectiveness

p.p.s. New to program review? Program reviews thoughtfully reflect on the current state of the program, make plans and initiatives for next year, connect unit plans to College Plans and Priorities, foster collaboration across units, and demonstrate closing the loop and dialogue around program improvements.
