Subject: Program Review - Fall 2015

Dear College Community,

Program review is in full swing! As always, resources are located at www.ccsf.edu/programreview. Note that this year's deadline has been extended to December 1, 2015. For more information see Key Dates for Fall 2015.

We aim to improve the program review process every year. A major improvement this year is the implementation of the CurricUNET Program Review module. Some changes you can expect include:

- Replacement of old forms and word/excel files with CurricUNET software
- Refinement of questions to better tie them together and use them to engage in college-wide conversations
- Clearer tracking of progress related to resources
- Better integration of assessment, planning, and curriculum, especially for instructional units
- The ability to view draft program reviews in CurricUNET (check back in a few weeks since drafting has just begun)

In the meantime, curious to know more about program review? Take a look at last year's completed program review for your area. These reviews reflect the tremendous work and efforts to support our students and continuously improve all aspects of City College. A huge THANK YOU to everyone who contributed.

Best Regards,
Pam Mery, Dean of Institutional Effectiveness
