This course centers on practice and includes three reflections over the course of the semester.

In-person meetings:
Jan. 21 (in MUB 240) | Mar. 17 | May 5
5:30 - 7:00 pm | Creative Arts 217

Requirements:
- Co-enrollment in at least one relevant course (3 units)
- Commitment to work in an organization promoting social justice

  Each 75 hours of paid work = one semester credit
  Each 60 hours of non-paid work = one semester credit

Register today at ccsf.edu/schedule.

Eager to promote social justice?
Looking for new ways to learn through doing?
Let’s get to work!

CSF | SPRING 2020 | VARIABLE UNITS (1-6)

IDST 300 serves student workers at campus Resource Centers, as well as Project SURVIVE and Expect Respect peer educators. It also complements and offers a deeper Service Learning opportunity for students enrolled in Intro to Women’s and Gender Studies: Feminism Demystified (WGST 25). Others are welcome. Students may conduct paid or unpaid labor at non-governmental, advocacy, and/or nonprofit organizations. Students may arrange a paid or unpaid internship in advance or learn about Spring work experience opportunities at the Social Justice Internship Event on Tuesday, Jan. 21, 4:30-5:30pm, in MUB 240 (before the first class meeting).

For more information, contact Professor Maggie Harrison: mharriso@ccsf.edu