Ethnic Studies and Social Justice Courses
Still Open * Enroll Now * Spring 2020

LBCS 81 Organizing for Justice (3)
The class will examine the strategies and tactics of organizing for economic, racial and social justice in various settings. Workplace and community organizing. Unions and workers' centers. Labor-community coalition building. The effectiveness of different approaches to building labor and community power in the current historical context. TRANSFERRABLE TO CSU
CRN: 32077 1170 T, 6:10-9:00 p.m., Market, Civic Center, James Tracy

LBCS 70B, Who Built America? (3)
CRN 31769, MWF, 11:10-12, Statler Wing 2, William Shields

LBCS 96C, Labor Relations in American Workplace
Study of labor relations in various industries, including their history, present status, and current issues. Includes ownership patterns, workplace structure, the changing workforce, management philosophies, unionization, workers' rights, and current concerns. Labor relations as they affect the economy, society, and culture. TRANSFERRABLE TO CSU
CRN 31149 MWF 12:10 – 1:00 PM Statler Wing 2, William Shields

LGBT 50 - Queer People of Color (3)
CRN: 32882 Tuesday Nights 6:30-9:20 Ocean, Cloud Hall 236 Breana Hansen

WGST 54: Politics of Sexual Violence (3)
An examination of the political, social, and psychological causes of sexual violence, its connections to other hate crimes, and strategies for transforming a rape culture through prevention education. Includes a special emphasis on the healing function of creative expression, especially writing. Field project required. Meets requirements for Social Justice: Gender Studies & Feminist, Queer and Trans Studies AATs, WGST AA, Sexual Health Educator certificate, CSU-D4: Gender Studies, LGBT Studies,CCSF H2: Women's Studies, Women's and Gender Studies. Transferrable to UC/CSU.
CRN 32833 R 4:10 PM - 07:00 PM. Ocean, Cloud 230, Shella Cervantes

WGST 55: Ending Sexual Violence: Peer Education (3)
Education and skills training in peer education to promote healthy sexual relationships by reducing sexual violence, specifically intimate partner violence and acquaintance rape. Peer education activities, geared toward ending sexual violence, include presentations to CCSF classes and volunteer work in community based organizations. Field project required. Meets requirements for Social Justice: Gender Studies & Feminist, Queer and Trans Studies AATs, WGST AA, Sexual Health Educator certificate, LGBT Studies, CCSF G2: Physical Skills,CCSF H2: Women's Studies, Women's and Gender Studies. Transferrable to CSU.
CRN 32834 T 2:10 PM - 05:00 PM. Ocean, Cloud 269, Adele Failes-Carpenter

Internet URL: www.ccsf.edu
* ccsf approved for posting