“An entrepreneur isn’t someone who owns a business, it is someone who makes things happen.”

- Tim Ferris

2018 WORKSHOP SERIES MODULE ONE
THE ENTREPRENEURIAL MINDSET

Thursday, November 1, 2018
5:00 to 7:30pm
Venue | Collaboratory Space, Rosenberg Library
Light dinner to be provided
RSVP | vfaustino@ccsf.edu

GUEST SPEAKER | Jesse Martinez
Serial entrepreneur who built a company funded by Sequoia Capital and bought by Frontier Communications for $180m. His 2nd venture raised $2.3m in seed capital & had two acquisition offers in less than six months. Today, Jesse is busy co-founding his third startup and started his personal passion, Latino Startup Alliance, a non-profit supporting global Latino Tech Entrepreneurs and startup ecosystems, and AVION.

FACILITATOR | Dr. Susan Stryker
Dr. Susan Stryker has over 20 years of leadership in large and small for profit and nonprofit businesses in the U.K. and North America. She currently teaches in the Department of Entrepreneurship, Innovation & Strategies at the University of San Francisco.

For more information about the Center for Entrepreneur and Innovation, visit our site at www.ccsf.edu/entrepreneurship.