Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, students will be able to:

- Evaluate the methods of inquiry and analysis used by the social and behavioral sciences in the study of racial, ethnic, and cultural formations.
- Analyze how the intersections of social class, gender, sexuality and ability pervade racial and ethnic identity formations.
- Evaluate the changing definitions of race and ethnicity and their impacts on cultures and societies.
- Appraise artistic and cultural representations that speak to race and ethnicity.
- Compare and contrast the struggles for social justice of diverse ethnic and racial groups in the United States.

Students who wish to earn the Associate of Arts in Social Justice: Ethnic Studies for Transfer (AA-T) must complete 60 CSU transferable units with at least a 2.0 grade point average. Each course in the major must be completed with a grade of "C" or better. Courses used to meet the major requirements may also be used to meet IGETC or CSU GE requirements.

Minimum time for completion is four semesters. Completion time will vary based on student preparation and number of units completed per semester.
