The California Wellness Foundation (TCWF) – CCSF and the San Francisco Welcome Back Center are requesting funds to develop, pilot test and evaluate a health-focused ESL program. The one year VESL program would equip foreign trained health professions with the English communications skills necessary to function effectively in the health sector. It is also anticipated that this program would benefit young immigrants seeking to enter a health career program and incumbent health workers in need of improvement of their English communication skills. We are calling the project the "English Health Train". The request is in the amount not to exceed $150,000 for the period of January 1, 2004 – December 31, 2006.
