Communications Workgroup Update

Overview

Purpose

The purpose of this workgroup is to collaboratively develop recommendations that will result in a District-wide Strategic Communication Management Plan including but not limited to:

1. facilitating better communication among our various constituencies within the college and external stakeholders, as well as
2. ensuring appropriate coordination of communication efforts throughout the District to avoid redundancy, improve consistency in messaging, and optimally leverage our various communication platforms

This plan will encompass several components that align and support the achievement of CCSF's Education Master Plan.

Draft Standards

The draft Community Standards are organized emphasizing and utilizing the following three themes:

I. Collegiality

II. Creating Safe Shared Spaces for Engagement

III. Self-Awareness, Presence, and Patience

Draft Standard: Collegiality

- Disagree without disrespecting others or assuming ill intent.
- Be aware of the intent of your comments and the impact that they will have.
- Practice “yes, and...” thinking.
- Solicit feedback.
- Honor and appreciate experiences, knowledge, and diversity of perspectives.
- Try on new ideas that are uncomfortable and have a willingness to challenge your discomfort.
- Make positive inquiries/Be respectful when making inquiries or asking for clarification/Ask clarifying questions (“I understand you to mean X, is that correct?”)
- Look for and present feasible options/practical solutions.

Draft Standard: Creating Safe Shared Spaces

- Provide and accept feedback with humility and respect.
- Recognize differences in communication styles.
- Be aware of when to step up and/or step aside, and when to invite others to step up.
- Be affirming and solution-oriented, look for positive outcomes (and understand solutions can come from authentic sharing).
- Create a supportive place to ask questions and make observations.
- Practice grace and gratitude.

Draft Standard: Self-Awareness, Presence & Patience

- Use “I” language.
- Invite others into the conversation.
- Honor the dedication of committee members and assume that committee members all have the best of intentions.
- Communicate with respect and humility.
- Recognize that we all have biases and avoid making assumptions when interacting with others.
- Exercise patience with others.
- Value transparency as it serves the goals of the council.
