

Important Dates

Q. What is the plan for students, faculty and staff engagement in the coming weeks?

- A:
- March 11-12
Face-to-face classes and events continue.
 - March 13-20
Face-to-face classes are suspended. Online and tech-enhanced classes continue uninterrupted.
 - March 21-29
NEW Spring Break scheduled.
 - March 30
Most face-to-face classes resume in modified online learning formats.

General Questions

Q. How does CCSF define Modified Learning?

A. Modified Learning is defined as a class that is delivered remotely via Canvas, but was originally designed to be a face-to-face class.

Q. I'm not comfortable being on campus March 11 or 12 due to the local outbreak of COVID-19/Coronavirus. What should I do?

- A. For students and employees who feel uneasy around groups of people due to the potential risk of contracting the virus:
- students should contact their instructors to make special arrangements.
 - employees should contact their direct supervisor to make special arrangements.

Q. Will student workers, faculty and staff experience any interruption or loss of pay when they work remotely?

A. All employees, including student workers, will be paid as usual without interruption

Spring Break

Q. Why was Spring Break moved up a week?

A. Spring Break was moved up in order to minimize the interruption to student learning.

Q. What should I do if I'm unable to participate in my class during the week of March 30 due to vacation plans?

A. Instructors understand that not all of our students can easily rearrange their Spring Break plans and will accommodate assignments accordingly. If you won't be able to participate in classwork during the week of Spring Break, please contact your instructor as soon as possible to make special arrangements.

Facilities

Q. If face-to-face classes are being offered in instructional locations outside of City College, will these classes continue with face-to-face instruction?

A. Face-to-face instruction will continue as long as the third-party location site remains open.