I. Call to Order, 2:30

II. Adoption of Agenda
Agenda adopted.

III. Officers’ Reports

President Teti provided a written report (Appendix A).

First Vice-President Hanson briefly reported:
• The Budget Committee has not met, although one of the goals was to meet by the end of September of this year. The next meeting is still pending.
• There are lots of plans coming through the college as mandates (such as the FMP and the EMP) with timelines to be done. That means there are going to be many calls for committees for faculty input.

Second Vice-President Staff briefly reported:
• On the implementation of program revitalization for the Labor Studies program. The committee is coming together now, with Coni Staff as the faculty co-chair.

Secretary Litzky briefly reported:
• No report given.
IV. Public Comment

- A council member spoke about their experience reading the One College, One Book selection, Mission High, and recommended the book to everyone.
- A concern was shared about the scheduling of the last minute faculty calls for participation, such as the housing focus group which was scheduled opposite a DCC meeting.
- The Associated Students are having a special election next week. There will be 3 centers (Chinatown, Mission, and Evans) that are having student council elections. They are also proposing a new center constitution and by-laws. This includes non-credit students as voting members as well, and some of the changes in the by-laws allow for non-credit student leaders.
- There was a concern about the construction in Conlon hall, and the lack of notification for those working in the area.

VII. Reports

A. Guided Pathways

Rob Yung, GP Communications Coordinator, updated the Council about the GP Leadership team and upcoming events. There is an event on 9/21 in MUB 140 from 2-4pm. Students will discuss their experiences at the school, and there will be some scenarios from other schools that have had challenges in their experiences.

B. CCSF Departments’ Responses to AB705

Dean Mandy Liang presented an update about the implementation of AB 705 at CCSF. With the elimination of testing requirements, there will be some revision of placement policies and models of assessment. Erin Denney, chair of the English department, informed the Council about how the English department is placing students into transfer-level English. Greg Keech, chair of ESL, talked about some of the placement issues with language-learning students. Dennis Piontkowski, chair of the Math department, shared some highlights of how AB 705 is affecting their course offerings.

Academic Senate Program Review
On a similar note, all District units must write full, 3-year program reviews this semester. Most of this burden will fall on your stalwart officers. However, we welcome help from anyone willing to provide it. Please let me or any of the officers know if you wish to serve on an ad hoc program review committee.
Education Policies Committee
The Education Policies Committee will be working on four items this semester.
• Multiple Majors/Degree Policy
• Criteria for students' names to appear on the Commencement list
• Allowing students to use CSU or TGETC G.E. for local degrees
• Waiving local G.E. requirements for students who already have bachelor degrees
(The last two would be referred laterally to the Curriculum Committee.)
DLAC
DLAC discussed the following issues on Monday and will bring them to the Academic Senate.
(1) Requiring online instructors to have regular and effective contact in the LMS (i.e., Canvas)
(2) Recommending (not a rule) that full-time faculty not teach exclusively online so that they can maintain a campus presence to meet with students (an equity issue) and to perform campus committee responsibilities.

Academic Affairs Re-Organization
There have been many changes in the placement of department under deans. The Dean of Southeast and Evans next semester will get the Airport, too, as well as Aircraft Maintenance and Automotive. Transitional Studies will report to the Mission Dean starting Spring 2019. Communication Studies famously moved from the former FACA School to join English and World Languages. On a related note: The administration has become fond of saying that they plan to make John Adams the Allied Health campus (well, they still say “center”, possibly just to annoy me). Hasn’t it always been the Allied Health campus?

Lip-reading Classroom Concord
Following up on Muriel Parenteau’s presentation last meeting: Dean Frost, Dean Jenkins, and DSPS Chair Parenteau came to an agreement that the lip-reading class may meet in room JAD108 instead of JAD203 but, if JAD109 happens to be available on a particular day, the class may use it.

Fred Teti, President
