

CCSF Catalog Changes List for 2010-11

Course and Program Changes of Note:

- New or converted (from the Award of Achievement) majors for:
 - Aircraft Powerplant Maintenance Technology
 - Airframe-Maintenance Technology
 - Automotive Mechanics
 - Avionics-Maintenance Technology
 - Diagnostic Medical Imaging
 - Finance
 - Latin American & Latino/a Studies
 - Marketing
 - Radiation Therapy Technology
 - Women's Studies
- Conversion from an A.A. to an A.S. for:
 - Child Development
 - Fashion Design
 - Fashion Merchandising
 - Labor and Community Studies
 - Library Information Technology
 - Paralegal/Legal Studies
- Expansion of Liberal Arts and Sciences degree to include CCSF GE approved courses in Humanities, Social & Behavioral Sciences, and Natural Sciences (pgs: 302-304)
- Significant course changes/renumbering
 - BIO 101A – 101B to BIO 100A – 100B (some topics from 101B now in 100A)
 - P E renumbered; added prefixes for DANC and PE A
 - Theatre Arts renumbered

Associate Degree Graduation Requirement Changes (pages: 44-49)

- Area G now titled "Health Knowledge (G1) and Physical Skills (G2)"
- Area H3 now titled "Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Studies"
- Area G2 waiver for veterans (pg. 47)
- Change in catalog rights language to specify that students who entered in summer can choose the earlier year (pg. 44)
- New language allowing CCSF GE areas to be cleared with a 4-quarter-unit course (pg.44)
- Residency requirement (last 12 or minimum 45 units) language clarified that it pertains to degree applicable units (pg. 49)

Academic Policies Changes:

- Incomplete grades must now be removed by the end of the following semester (pg. 387)
- Noncredit grading change that includes SP option (pg. 386)
- Academic Renewal language clarification regarding the point at which courses may be excluded; petition requires counselor signature (pg. 391)