Students can register for classes at any CCSF location. A somewhat complex profile of cross attendance emerges when enrollment patterns are analyzed, as many students are attending courses at multiple locations.

Centers/Locations attendance patterns.

Analysis of overlapping enrollment. Data from Fall 2015

How many students are attending this location?

How enrollments (duplicated) do these students represent? (in credit and noncredit)

Are these same students attending courses at other CCSF locations?

	Total Headcount attending this location	Total number of (duplicated) enrollments this location	This location, CREDIT enrollments (duplicated)	This location, NONCREDIT enrollments (duplicated)	Same students, CREDIT enrollments (duplicated) at other locations	Same students, NONCREDIT enrollments (duplicated) at other locations
